

I support RM-10352 because there are many topband CW operators on this band and when ssb stations come down into the lower part of the band it is impossible to work weak signals for a large part of the spectrum. We need FCC help because the ARRL bandplan is only voluntary and many new and old 160M ssb operators do not follow it because it is only voluntary

73 Don KH6DX/mobile